

Please do not overrule our telephone privacy law just so these banks can call us to try to sell us additional services. If they have real business with us, they are allowed to call us. Most of these companies dial several numbers at once and, if you aren't the 1st to pick up, when you do, no one is there. I used to get 3 or 4 per day.